

1.

Use Case diagram for viewing cities by population

1. Input Continent Name: User inputs the name of a continent.
2. View Cities by Population: User views a list of cities in the specified continent, sorted by population.
3. Filter by Country: User filters the list of cities by a specific country within the continent.
4. View City Details: User views detailed information about a specific city, including its name, country, district, and population.
5. Add City Data: Admin adds new city data to the system.
6. Update City Data: Admin updates existing city data.
7. Delete City Data: Admin deletes city data from the system.
8. Admin generates reports on city populations and other statistics.

lation